

Different URBANISATIONS

This dialogue focuses on the role and limits of import/export of knowledge, technology and urbanisation patterns between different regions of the world, and questions how 'culturally different' the processes of urbanisation are/should be.

Africa is at the beginning of a major wave of urbanisation and is theoretically still in the position to take decisions on how the African Urban Transition will take shape. But what happens when we export European or Asian urbanisation patterns and technologies to African cities (which is already happening)? Which approaches can be shared (imported) and which cannot? What influence do 'different urbanisations' have on the resulting urban resource flows?

With keynotes from

Susan Parnell

African Centre for Cities; Professor of Environmental and Geographical Sciences, University of Cape Town, South Africa

Serge Salat

President Urban Morphology and Complex Systems Institute, Paris, France

Ricardo Ruiz Freire

InCiti – Federal University of Pernambuco;
3ecologias and LABCEUS, Recife, Brasil

Commentator:

Remy Sietchiping

Leader, Regional and Metropolitan Planning Unit,
UN-Habitat, Nairobi, Kenya

Introduced by

Katleen De Flander

Institute for Advanced Sustainability Studies, Potsdam

Áine Ryan

ANCB The Aedes Metropolitan Laboratory, Berlin

Framed and moderated by

Astrid Ley

Director, Chair of International Urbanism, Stuttgart University

Critical Public Debate

The event will be in English.
Admission is free upon registration at <http://iass-potsdam.de/dialogues>

Friday 18 September 2015, 18:30

ANCB - Aedes Network Campus Berlin
Christinenstr. 18-19, 10119 Berlin

CRITICAL DIALOGUES SERIES

The IASS is initiating and facilitating a Series of Critical Dialogues on the practicalities of implementing the New Urban Agenda – and its possible constraints – in the political context of Habitat III (UN Conference on Housing and Sustainable Urban Development, 2016). Each of these Public Dialogues addresses a topic of central importance to Habitat III from 1) an unconventional angle and 2) an 'on the ground' perspective.

The New Urban Agenda 'on the ground'